BELLVIEW CHIMES

Mr. Wesley Brown went to Clovis Monday and brought out his thrasher. He expects to begin threshing next week.

Mr. Charlie Gann's relatives were out visiting him from Amarillo the last of the week.

Quite a few were shopping at Boney's Saturday.

Some of the wheat headers stopped last week on account of the wheat not being ripe, but I think all of it will be ready to cut by next week.

Pearl and Hazel Moss spent Tuesday night with Olla Brown.

Mrs. Halley called on Mrs. Moss Saturday evening.

Mr. Hobson and Misses Pearl, Lucy and Mae Moss were Sunday guests of Mrs. Stovall's DOLLIE DIMPLE.

CLAUDE NOTES

This neighborhood has been visited by several showers of rain, but it has not delayed wheat cutting very much.

Mrs. J. R. Faris and son Ralton, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Westfall, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Krietzberg entertained their relatives and a few friends by giving an ice cream supper which was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchel from near Clovis attended preaching services Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Redmon preached a very interesting sermon Sunday afternoon to a very small crowd. Think some of our people must have been afraid of the rain.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Dodson has been very sick the past week. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Westfall attended church in Clovis Sunday.

Mr. W. V. Westfall went to Amarillo Sunday to see his wife and baby, who are visiting at the home of her parents. He returned home Monday.

CAMERON NEWS

There are at least twenty machines at work this week in this neighborhood harvesting the golden grain.

F. A. Harrell had the misfortune to lose a yearling calf, by eating green cane, Sunday night. However, the calf was one he was pasturing for Mrs. Gann.

L. M. Boney made a business trip to Hereford the first of the week.

Mr. Poston of Tucumcari spent Saturday night at the home of M. F. Hendrix, enroute to Texas, where he is going to look for a location.

Mrs. I. L. Coulter, Mrs. Mable Hutchins and Mrs. Ellen Allen were shopping at Boney's last week.

The Keim brothers and Robert Gates of Bard are helping J. Z. Isler harvest his wheat.

While returning from San Jon last week the brakes failed to work on Grover Cogdill's car while coming up the caprock. The car rolled off a steep place and he had to secure the help of a four horse team to get it into the road again. He and family were out of the car when it rolled down.

Marion Meredith and family spent Sunday night at the home of A. C. Johnston.

The showers that fell the first of the week refreshed the row crops.

Miss Margaret Bryant, who has been helping her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Boney, to cook for harvest hands, returned home Sunday evening.

Rev. Rodgers preached an interesting sermon at New Hope Sunday morning.

J. Z. Isler sold 35 head of steer calves last week to Dycus & Clinger, at $42.50 per head.

L. M. Boney has sold 125 case of gallon cans of fruit since the harvest began, besides a very great amount of smaller cans.

Messrs. Peters and Yell of Bellview were business callers in this part Saturday.

A. A. Dethrage and family moved out from Clovis last week. They will live in Clifton Dunn's house, one mile west of Leach's till September 1st, when they expect to move to their own place which is now occupied by M. F. Hendrix.
